At the Leigham Practice you can be assured that all our staff are fully qualified and experienced professionals. They are registered with the appropriate regulating authorities. We work with experienced professionals with excellent backgrounds and reputations to deliver the best care and high quality treatment. We appreciate any comments you may have regarding our staff and treatments and also welcome any suggestions you may have regarding any aspect of our service.

We also care as much about the quality of our treatments as we do with our staff. All of our essential oils used for aromatherapy are 100% Organic and approved by the Soil

Association, and our natural carrier oils are supplied by companies committed to natural and ethical harvesting.

The only request we make of our clients is that they respect our cancellation policy. Where any appointment is cancelled or changed with less than 24 hours notice, or is simply missed, for any reason, the full charge is made. Please bear this in mind when making your booking. We send our thanks in advance for your respect and consideration to our staff and services.
